PART 2 – CONSTITUTION AND POWERS OF ASSOCIATION

5. Powers of Association

(1) For achieving its objects and purposes, the Association has the powers conferred by sections 11 and 13 of the Act.

(2) Subject to the Act, the Association may do all things necessary or convenient for carrying out its objects or purposes, and in particular, may –

- (a) acquire, hold and dispose of real or personal property;
- (b) open and operate accounts with financial institutions;
- (c) invest its money in any security in which trust monies may lawfully be invested;
- (d) raise and borrow money on the terms and in the manner it considers appropriate;
- (e) secure the repayment of money raised or borrowed, or the payment of a debt or liability;
- (f) appoint agents to transact business on its behalf; and
- (g) enter into any other contract it considers necessary or desirable.

6. Effect of Constitution

This Constitution binds every member and the Association to the same extent as if every member and the Association had signed and sealed this Constitution and agreed to be bound by it.

7. Inconsistency between Constitution and Act

If there is any inconsistency between this Constitution and the Act, the Act prevails.

8. Altering the Constitution

- (1) The Association may alter this Constitution by special resolution but not otherwise.
- (2) If the Constitution is altered, the public officer must ensure compliance with section 23 of the Act.

PART 3 – MEMBERS

Division 1 – Membership

9. Application for membership

- (1) A person becomes a member by successfully enrolling for participation in a Rogaining Event that is
  - (i) organised by the Association and subject to the rogaining rules and;
  - (ii) where specific entry conditions have been established by the Committee.

(2) To apply to become a member of the Association without enrolling for participation in an event a person must submit a written application for membership to the Committee –

- (i) in a form approved by the Committee; and
- (ii) signed by the person.

(3) At the discretion of the Committee a person may be nominated to the status of honorary member of the Association by means of a vote at a general meeting for a duration as determined by members at that general meeting.

10. Approval of Committee

(1) The Committee may, subject to clause (25), appoint an Event Registrar to consider applications for membership made under clause 9(1) for enrolment in an event at the time of enrolment.

(2) The Committee must consider any application made under clause 9(2) at the next available committee meeting and must accept or reject the application at that meeting or the next.

(3) If an application is rejected either by the Event Registrar under clause 9(1) or by the Committee under clause 9(2), the applicant may appeal against the decision by giving notice to the Secretary within 14 days after being advised of the rejection.

(4) If an applicant gives notice of an appeal against the rejection of his or her application, the Committee must reconsider the application at the next committee meeting after receipt of the notice of appeal.

(5) If after reconsidering an application the Committee reaffirms its decision to reject the application, the decision is final.

11. Joining fee

(1) If an application for enrolment to participate in an event is accepted by the Event Registrar or membership is otherwise approved by the Committee, the applicant becomes a member and no joining fee is required.

12. Annual membership fees

(1) The membership fee is the amount determined from time to time by the Committee for the financial year.

(2) Each member must pay the annual membership fee to the Event Registrar before participating in a rogaining event if applying under clause 9(1) or to the Treasurer at the time of application to become a member if applying under clause 9(2).

- (3) No person is a member until the subscription has been paid.

(4) All memberships remain valid until the point of commencement of competition in the next rogaining event, a member who does not renew a subscription prior to the next event ceases to be a member at that point unless the Committee determines otherwise.

(5) Without limiting subsection (4), a person remains a member for the purpose of clauses 14, 26 and 33, if they participated in an event and paid a subscription in the preceding 12 months or since the Associations last Annual General Meeting.

Division 2 – Rights of members

13. General

(1) A member may exercise the rights of membership when his or her name is entered in the register of members.

(2) A right of membership of the Association –

(a) is not capable of being transferred or transmitted to another person; and

(b) terminates on the cessation of membership whether by death, resignation or otherwise.

(3) No person may participate in a Rogaining Event without first becoming a member.

14. Voting

Subject to clause 18 each member has one vote at general meetings of the Association.

15. Notice of meetings and special resolutions

The Secretary must give all members notice of general meetings and special resolutions in the manner and time prescribed by this Constitution.

16. Access to information on Association

The following must be available for inspection by members:

(a) a copy of this Constitution;

(b) minutes of general meetings;

(c) annual reports and annual financial reports.

17. Raising grievances and complaints

(1) A member may raise a grievance or complaint about a committee member, the Committee or another member of the Association.

(2) The grievance or complaint must be dealt with by the procedures set out in Part 8.

18. Honorary members

An honorary member may vote and may have other rights as determined by the Committee or by resolution at a general meeting.

Division 3 – Termination, death, suspension and expulsion

19. Termination of membership

Membership of the Association may be terminated by –

- (a) a notice of resignation addressed and posted to the Association or given personally to the Secretary or another committee member;
- (b) non-payment of the annual membership fee; or
- (c) expulsion in accordance with this Division.

20. Death of member or whereabouts unknown

If a member dies or the whereabouts of a member are unknown, the member's membership will expire at the point of commencement of competition of the first rogaining event of the calendar year following the year in which the last subscription was paid.

21. Suspension or expulsion of members

(1) If the Committee considers that a member should be suspended or expelled because his or her conduct is detrimental to the interests of the Association, the Committee must give notice of the proposed suspension or expulsion to the member.

(2) The notice must –

(a) be in writing and include –

- (i) the time, date and place of the committee meeting at which the question of that suspension or expulsion will be decided; and
- (ii) the particulars of the conduct; and

(b) be given to the member not less than 30 days before the date of the committee meeting referred to in paragraph (a)(i).

(3) At the meeting, the Committee must afford the member a reasonable opportunity to be heard or to make representations in writing.

(4) The Committee may suspend or expel or decline to suspend or expel the member from the Association and must give written notice of the decision and the reason for it to the member.

(5) Subject to clause 22, the decision to suspend or expel a member takes effect 14 days after the day on which notice of the decision is given to the member.

22. Appeals against suspension or expulsion

(1) A member who is suspended or expelled under clause 21 may appeal against that suspension or expulsion by giving notice to the Secretary within 14 days after receipt of the Committee's decision.

(2) The appeal must be considered at a general meeting of the Association and the member must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to be heard at the meeting or to make representations in writing prior to the meeting for circulation at the meeting.

(3) The members present at the general meeting must, by resolution, either confirm or set aside the decision of the Committee to suspend or expel the member.

(4) The member is not suspended or does not cease to be a member until the decision of the Committee to suspend or expel him or her is confirmed by a resolution of the members.

PART 4 – MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

Division 1 – General

23. Role and powers

(1) The business of the Association must be managed by or under the direction of a Management Committee.

(2) The Committee may exercise all the powers of the Association except those matters that the Act or this Constitution requires the Association to determine through a general meeting of members.

(3) The Committee may establish one or more subcommittees consisting of the members of the Association the Committee considers appropriate.

24. Composition of Committee

(1) The Management Committee consists of –

(a) a President;

(b) a Vice-President;

(c) a Secretary;

(d) a Treasurer; and

(e) no less than two (2) ordinary members.

(2) Unless elected directly as a separate office holder, the Committee must appoint one committee member to be the Association's public officer.

25. Delegation

(1) The Committee may delegate to a subcommittee any of its powers and functions other than –

(a) this power of delegation; or

(b) a duty imposed on the Committee by the Act or any other law.

(2) The Committee may delegate to the Event Registrar the consideration of applications for membership applied for at the time of enrolment for participation in a Rogaining Event provided that:

(a) The Event Registrar is appointed by the Committee to accept registrations for a specific Rogaining Event only;

(b) The Committee has determined the criteria for acceptance of the application.

(3) The delegation must be in writing and may be subject to the conditions and limitations the Committee considers appropriate.

(4) The Committee may, in writing, revoke wholly or in part the delegation.

Division 2 – Tenure of office

26. Eligibility of committee members

- (1) A committee member must be a member who is 18 years or over.
- (2) Committee members must be elected to the Committee at an annual general meeting or appointed under clause 33.

27. Nominations for election to committee

- (1) All members are eligible to nominate for election to the Committee, provided the nomination is made in person and recorded at the annual general meeting.
- (2) Each nomination received for election requires two members present at the annual general meeting to second the nomination, and for this to also be recorded.

28. Retirement of committee members

- (1) A committee member holds office until the next annual general meeting unless the member vacates the office under clause 31 or is removed under clause 32.
- (2) Subject to subclause (3), at an annual general meeting the office of each committee member becomes vacant and elections for a new Committee must be held.
- (3) The President of the outgoing Committee must preside at the annual general meeting until a new member is elected as President.
- (4) Members may serve consecutive terms on the Committee unless otherwise provided in the Schedule.

29. Election by default

- (1) If the number of persons nominated for election to the Committee under clause 27 does not exceed the number of vacancies to be filled, the President must declare the persons to be duly elected as members of the Committee at the annual general meeting.
- (2) If vacancies remain on the Committee after the declaration under subclause (1), additional nominations of committee members may be accepted from the floor of the annual general meeting.
- (3) If the nominations from the floor do not exceed the number of remaining vacancies, the President must declare those persons to be duly elected as members of the Committee.
- (4) If the nominations from the floor are less than the number of remaining vacancies, the unfilled vacancies are taken to be casual vacancies and must be filled by the new Committee in accordance with clause 33.

30. Election by ballot

- (1) If the number of nominations exceeds the number of vacancies on the Committee, ballots for those positions must be conducted.
- (2) The ballot must be conducted in a manner determined from time to time by resolution at a general meeting.
- (3) The members chosen by ballot must be declared by the President to be duly elected as members of the Committee.

31. Vacating office

The office of a committee member becomes vacant if –

- (a) The member –
  - (i) Is disqualified from being a committee member under section 30 or 40 of the Act;
  - (ii) Resigns by giving written notice to the Committee;
  - (iii) Dies or is rendered permanently incapable of performing the duties of office by mental or physical ill-health;
