PLEASE READ THIS CAREFULLY:

Note: This is a legal document. You should obtain legal advice before signing if you do not understand its meaning and effect. All Members involved must read and sign this form in order to participate in any activity.

This event is an activity which can involve risk of personal injury or property damage. While it is acknowledged as a challenging activity, the risks ought not to be discounted particularly navigating through potential dangers in a bush setting in daylight or darkness (you should not be out on the course then, the event finishes no later than 7:00pm). Extreme care must be taken by participants to avoid injuries from falls – Members must wear appropriate footwear. Other, but less obvious, risks will occur because of the nature and type of terrain through which the activities are conducted. The Association requires all participants to carry equipment such as suitable clothing, food, torches, compasses, water, first aid kit and any other allowed devices which will limit the inherent risks in the activity.

By participating in any of the activities, each participant acknowledges that their involvement comprises considerable risk and agrees that by entering any activity on the weekend being held by the Northern Territory Rogaining Association they do so at their own risk.

The participant binds themselves, their executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns as follows:

a) The participant agrees to discharge and release the Northern Territory Rogaining Association, their volunteers, the owners and occupiers of land used in the event, event sponsors and producers, community organisations, Territory, Federal and Local Authorities in which the event may be held and their (its) representatives from all liability for death, disability, personal injury, damage to property, theft, and all foreseeable risks, claims or actions of any kind, howsoever caused, resulting from their participation – directly or indirectly – in this event.

b) The participant agrees to further indemnify and hold harmless all entities and persons mentioned in the above clause (a) from all liabilities, claims or action, as mentioned above, irrespective of whether the Association or its employees or agents may have been negligent.

In particular, the participant agrees to indemnify the Association for any loss or damage arising from participating in the event and agrees that this indemnity may be pleaded as a complete defence to any legal proceedings or any right the participant may claim against the Association, its servants, agents or any owner or occupier of land used in the proceedings.

Acknowledged and agreed:
